Moses Beede Sent an acknowledgement to this Meet^{g} which is accepted and is as follows.. — Whereas some time past there was a complaint made out against me for disorderly Conduct, and for preaching, This may inform Friends, that as I have been for a Considerable time exempted from all publie offices in both Church and State it has afforded me more time for reflection and silent Meditation, wherein I have taken a review of my past life, and in looking over my past conduct in Meetings of discipline and worship. I have seen clearly that I have done many things too much in the heat of my own spirit whereby, I have given just occasion for offence, Now as I see clearly that everything of this nature will not suffer the Vengeance of Eternal fire without repentance. So I think I have experienced some degree of sorrow and repentance for the above mis conduct and desire friends to pass by my offences, and watch over me for good Moses Beede

Thomas Folsom Clk

P.S. Received a few lines from Daniel Osborn a member of Weare Mo meeting relative to the remaining expences of Judith Corner we are thereby informed that $29.50 cts is now due him for her support. It appears by our records of 1796 that when Weare was seperated from Seabrook Mo. meeting each monthly meeting came to the conclusion to contribute equally for the support of the poor belonging to Seabrook Mo meeting before the division & as Judith Corner is one of the poor belonging to said Seabrook Mo meeting before the division she has been supported by the two Mo meetings alternately of two years each. Seabrook however kept her 1 year in advance at first, so each meeting held her one year in advance at the time of removing from one place to the other ever since - therefore tis the conclusion of this meeting that the two meetings were even in the seventh Mo last & that this meeting has directed our treasurer to forward $14.75 cts to Daniel Osborn the same being our proportion of what remains due to him - And the Clerk is directed to forward an extract of this minute to Weare Mo. meeting
